

ATLANTA REGIONAL HOUSING FORUM

"Advancing Elements of a Regional Housing Program" What to Expect in 2005!

9:30 am - 1:30 pm • December 1, 2004

Loudermilk Center for the Regional Community • 40 Courtland Street NE • Atlanta, Georgia 30303

AGENDA

- 9:30 a.m. Registration
- 10:00 a.m. Welcome - Bill Bolling
- 10:05 a.m. Inclusionary Zoning Outlook - Douglas R. Porter
*The Urban Land Institute (ULI) published a book this year called Inclusionary Zoning for Affordable Housing. This book describes best practices and techniques for creating an effective inclusionary zoning program based on the experiences of industry experts, an evaluation of state, regional and local programs, and case studies of 15 communities across the nation. Douglas R. Porter, president of the Growth Management Institute, authored the book and will present an overview. What are the lessons for Atlanta and best practices to consider?*
- 11:05 a.m. Expected Regional Housing Activities in 2005
*The Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce's Quality Growth Task Force has focused on housing as one of their top issues. ARC will continue the Livable Centers Initiative (LCI) program with a renewed emphasis on housing and corridors. ANDP and other partners are working to implement the MICI report recommendations.*
- Does the Atlanta region need a coordinated housing data center? What regional housing activities will progress in 2005? What should be the primary areas of coordination? A panel of representatives from ANDP, ARC and the Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce led by Bill Bolling will discuss 2005 and respond to questions.*
- 12:00 p.m. Break for Lunch
- 12:45 p.m. Adjourn
